

Asset management

Practice area under Financial Services

We have extensive experience in handling all legal aspects with respect to asset management.

We assist a broad section of asset managers with all legal aspects of their business. We assist investment banks, investment undertakings, managers of alternative investment funds and investment managers etc.

Our broad experience and the close collaboration across Plesner's legal teams ensure that we can always provide the best possible assistance with an eye to the individual undertaking. We advise on the complex regulatory requirements which apply to different types of asset management and financial instruments as a consequence of MiFID as well as the various sector-specific regulations, including the Danish FAIF Act and the Danish Act on Investment Funds. We also have in-depth experience with respect to matters involving cross-border activities.

Our advice includes capital management contracts, including portfolio management agreements and investment advice agreements.

We assist our clients in setting up customised fund and company structures in collaboration with our specialists in the Private Investment Funds team, and we assist our clients in organising and facilitating offering processes in accordance with current legislation and in drafting offering circulars such as prospectuses and private placement memoranda.
