

Entertainment and Copyright

Practice area under IP Law

Plesner is among the leading advisers on all aspects of entertainment and copyright law.

We provide advice to a long list of Danish and foreign clients in the entertainment industry regarding everything from agreements about the use of rights to disputes about alleged infringements.

The issues may be related to music, movies, TV, computer games, software, data bases, sports, personality rights, ad agency agreements, literary works, photographs, etc. We also advise on media law - particularly in cases where our clients are - or potentially will be - getting bad publicity.

We have a team consisting of very experienced partners and associates and they are well versed in the latest technological developments and regulations.

We continuously provide advice to some of the most well-known and leading media and tech companies in Denmark and the rest of the world.
