Anne Kathrine is a partner in Plesner's Corporate Finance team. She has advised on a large number of M&A transactions, and she has extensive experience advising private equity sponsors as well as industrial clients, both on the buy-side and the sell-side.

PRACTICE AREAS

M&A

She also has extensive experience with international joint ventures and general corporate law, including corporate restructurings, mergers, demergers, liquidations, and management incentive programmes.

Anne Kathrine has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Copenhagen and has studied at Queen Mary University in London. In addition, she is an experienced lecturer and has been an external lecturer in corporate law at the University of Copenhagen.

Danish and international clients seek Anne Kathrine and the rest of Plesner's Corporate Finance team for their ability to deliver the multidisciplinary team effort and strong project management required for M&A.
