PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate Criminal Law
IP Law
Litigation
Marketing Law and Consumer Law

Emil is a partner in Plesner's Litigation and IP team. He has been involved in a wide range of disputes and litigation matters, including regulatory litigation, litigation regarding preliminary injunctions, IP litigation, and litigation concerning marketing and consumer law.

Emil is also the head of Plesner's Marketing and Consumer Law team, which provides advice in all areas of marketing and consumer law, including compliance advice and disputes between businesses and the public authorities. Furthermore, Emil has extensive experience with copyright, as well as media and entertainment law matters.

Emil has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Copenhagen. He is admitted to the Supreme Court.

Emil also has unique experience from his time as an assistant judge from 2012 to 2015 in the Danish Supreme Court and the Maritime and Commercial High Court (the first instance IP court in Denmark).

Most matters that Emil is involved in require a team approach and the involvement of different types of expertise. Clients frequently seek him and the team out because of their ability to offer strategic advice that is specialized to each client's needs, clear advice and communication, and commercial understanding.
