Martin is a partner in our Corporate Finance team, specializing in M&A transactions. With extensive experience in advising both Danish and international private equity funds and large corporations, Martin brings a wealth of knowledge to complex M&A related matters.

PRACTICE AREAS

M&A

Martin's expertise spans general commercial law, corporate law, and contract law, with a strong focus on private M&A transactions. He has a proven track record of successfully guiding founders and business owners through the sale of their companies or substantial capital raises. Martin's clients benefit from his deep understanding of issues that arise in both domestic and international transactions.

Martin is service minded and has a can-do attitude rooted in meticulous attention to detail and strategic insight.

His work is characterised by a clear set of priorities, effective communication, and a profound commercial understanding of client needs.

Martin has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Copenhagen and has completed advanced legal training. His role at Plesner is marked by his commitment to delivering exceptional legal advice and his ability to lead multidisciplinary teams to achieve optimal outcomes for clients.

At Plesner, we value Martin's ability to see beyond legal issues, focusing on creating practical and impactful solutions for our clients.
