Plesner's Insurance and Pension Law team has conducted a series of leading cases on behalf of large Danish insurance and pension companies. The team offers advice on all regulatory aspects, including transactions and restructurings of large Danish and foreign insurance and pension companies, as well as insurance intermediaries.

PRACTICE AREAS

Insurance and Pension Law
Litigation

Charlotte is a partner in Plesner's Insurance and Pension Law team. She has assisted a number of Danish and foreign insurance and pension companies, as well as insurance intermediaries, with establishment and restructuring, including portfolio transfers. She has also assisted a number of Danish and foreign companies with advice on the Danish insurance intermediary regulation.

Charlotte specialises in general insurance and tort law, which encompasses insurance fraud, advisors' professional liability, product liability, general commercial liability, and reinsurance. In these areas, she has handled a large number of litigation and arbitration proceedings. Thanks to her in-depth knowledge of the insurance markets, Charlotte provides targeted and value-creating advisory services to her clients in the industry.

Charlotte has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Copenhagen. She is a vice chairman of the board of the Danish Association of Insurance Law.

The Insurance and Pension Law team has detailed knowledge of the insurance and pension industry, as well as insurance intermediaries, thanks to the cases in which we have been involved. Our participation in and board work for trade associations such as the Danish Association of Insurance Law, the European Chapter of AIDA, and AIDA World underpin this knowledge. Almost all the regulatory matters that Charlotte is involved in require a multi-disciplinary team approach. Clients frequently seek her and the team out for their capacity to offer clear guidance, clear communication, and a deep commercial understanding of the client's needs.
