Julie is an attorney-at-law in Plesner's Corporate Law team. She primarily advises Danish and international clients on corporate matters that relate to company law, foundation law, and association law.

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate Law

Julie has experience providing legal assistance to both Danish and foreign businesses within a wide range of areas relating to corporate law, foundation law and association law including e.g. transactions, mergers, reorganisations, corporate governance, formation and dissolution of companies and branches of foreign companies as well as other matters within these legal areas.

Further, Julie has experience with insolvency and restructuring law, including the administration of estates in bankruptcy and compulsory dissolutions.

Julie holds a Master's degree in law from the University of Copenhagen and has studied half a year at the University of Queensland.

Corporate law matters often require a dedicated team that excels in delivering a solution-focused approach to any given issue. Plesner's Corporate team is often complimented for the team's unwavering ability to collaborate, communicate clearly and the team's commercial focus, which ensures the best possible product for the client. The team advises in all aspects of corporate law and related practice areas.
