PRACTICE AREAS

Tax

Before joining Plesner, Lars worked in other sectors, including the pension sector - most recently as a tax director at the ATP Group, one of the largest pension funds in Europe. In addition to experience in relation to the taxation of institutional investors, Lars has built up extensive experience in relation to the tax aspects of investments in private equity structures.

Lars has previously acted as an adviser in the field of taxation and has, for instance, been handling complaints and legal proceedings as well as company transactions.
