Plesner's Tax team is involved in most high-profile tax litigation and some of the largest and most complex transactions in M&A, real estate, energy and infrastructure, etc. Plesner's Tax team works across all Plesner's teams and practice areas, offering fully integrated tax advice, as almost any legal matter has a related tax aspect.

PRACTICE AREAS

Tax

Ulrik is a partner in our Tax team and has many years of experience of M&A structuring, SPAs, W&I tax insurance and tax due diligence for private equity funds and large businesses involving both Danish and international transactions.

Ulrik also provides advice on structuring and establishment of incentive programmes and reinvestment programmes for management and employees, advising both employers and management teams on the tax-related and commercial aspects of such programmes.

Ulrik approach to tax advice and M&A extends beyond the purely legal approach, and he also has knowledge of the actual tax assessment, how to address it in M&A processes, and he understands the accounting aspects of tax.

Ulrik also has extensive experience of providing advice in the start-up and growth segment, including advice relating to funding, tax restructuring and incentive programmes.

Ulrik has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Copenhagen. Ulrik is admitted to the High Court of Denmark.

Almost all tax matters require cooperation with other legal teams in Plesner. A multi-dimensional way of working is part of our team DNA transforming complex tax matters into clear advice, always with the client's commercial needs in the centre of our advice.
