PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate Law
Foundations

Kristina focuses on matters relating to foundation law and advises both commercial and non-commercial foundations as well as Danish and international enterprises on corporate law, foundation law, corporate governance, and group structures.

Kristina covers a broad range of corporate law matters, including foundation advisory, M&A, national and cross-border transactions, restructurings, mergers and demergers, investments, compliance, and governance. She brings solid experience and commercial insight to clients navigating complex legal frameworks and organisational structures.

Kristina has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Copenhagen. During her studies, she also attended the London School of Economics and participated in an international negotiation competition organised by a global negotiation network.

Corporate law matters often require a dedicated team that excels in delivering a solution-focused approach to any given issue. Plesner's Corporate Law team is often praised for its unwavering ability to collaborate and communicate clearly, and for its commercial focus, which ensures the best possible product for the client. The team advises on all aspects of corporate law and related practice areas.
