Anders is a partner in Plesner's Tax team focusing on both tax disputes and providing project related tax advice.

PRACTICE AREAS

Tax

Ranked internationally as a leading individual regarding tax, Anders has extensive experience of advising clients on, among other things, cross-border tax matters related to restructurings and M&A.

Over the years, he has also been involved in a wide range of tax controversy matters involving direct taxes - starting from the audit stage, through the administrative appeals system and also before the courts, including the Court of Justice of the European Union and international arbitration under the EU Arbitration Convention.

The past years, Anders' tax controversy work has primarily revolved around transfer pricing matters and the Danish "beneficial owner" cases as well as other cases regarding abuse of tax law.

Anders has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Aarhus.

Plesner's Tax team is involved in the vast majority of the most complex tax disputes which necessitate a multi-disciplinary team approach from multiple colleagues in the tax team. Working in teams ensures full partner attention to each case and that the best possible outcome will be achieved.

Selected cases

- Successfully represented pharmaceutical multinational group in transfer pricing case before the High Court
- Represented taxpayers in "beneficial owner" cases before the Supreme Court
- Advised taxpayer in the first Danish transfer pricing case resolved by EU arbitration
