Kia is an attorney-at-law in our IP team and in our Marketing and Consumer Law team.

PRACTICE AREAS

IP Law
Marketing Law and Consumer Law

Kia provides advice on all areas of marketing and consumer law, including the planning of marketing activities, contract terms with consumers and disputes between businesses or with authorities, whether in administrative or court proceedings.

Kia also advises on IP law, including counterfeit products, designs, trademarks and copyrights.

Kia holds a master's degree in law from the University of Copenhagen and spent a semester studying at the National University of Singapore.

Kia frequently works on complex cases requiring collaboration across different areas of expertise. Clients rely on the team for their commercial understanding and ability to offer clear advice and communication tailored to each client's needs.
