Specialised advice with a commercial outlook

Practice area under Defence and National Security

Our Defence and National Security team brings together years of practical experience across various legal fields and complex cases, with a strong emphasis on staying current with developments in the defence sector. This enables us to offer customised, multidisciplinary advice, helping clients make informed commercial decisions on a wide range of defence-related matters.

Our comprehensive legal support covers a wide range of areas, including:

- Extensive experience advising national and international clients on sector-specific legislation, including in relation to the production, import and export of sensitive products and technology, including but not limited to military equipment and dual-use products and technology
- Preparation and implementation of tailored compliance programmes for defence companies
- Procurement by the NATO Support and Procurement Agency (NSPA) and the Danish Defence Acquisition and Logistics Organisation (DALO)
- Agency, brokerage and sales representation related to the sale of military equipment etc. to DALO
- Advice on and negotiations with the Danish Business Authority regarding special Danish rules on offset/counter-purchase obligations
- M&A transactions involving companies or assets within the defence and security sector
- Obtainment of security clearances from the Danish authorities
- Screening and approval procedures in relation to foreign direct investments (FDI) within the defence and security sector
- National and EU tender procedures, public procurement and merger control
- IT and outsourcing, including facility management outsourcing and development and maintenance agreements within the defence and security sector
- Protection, exploitation and litigation in relation to intellectual property rights
- Establishment of consortia, partnerships and joint ventures
