PRACTICE AREAS

Digital, Tech & Commercial
Franchising and Global Expansion

Michelle advises Danish and international companies on commercial law with a particular focus on commercial contracts and international trade. She has extensive experience in drafting and negotiating a wide range of commercial agreements, including franchise, license, agency, distribution, and other supply chain contracts.

Michelle has a Master's degree in Law (LL.M.) from the University of Copenhagen and completed a semester at the University of Queensland in Australia.

Plesner's Commercial Contracts team is known for combining legal expertise with strong commercial understanding. The team works closely together to deliver advice that is both legally robust and commercially practical. By drawing on their collective experience and insight into clients' businesses, Michelle and her colleagues provide tailored, value-adding solutions across a broad range of commercial matters.
