Siri is Chief Financial Officer at Plesner and is responsible for the firm's financial strategy and operations, ensuring long-term financial stability and growth.

Siri has more than 15 years of experience in audit, finance, and business transformation and has led complex financial processes, driven operational efficiencies, and supported strategic decision-making in both national and international companies.

She has extensive expertise in financial management, reporting, and risk assessment, always with a strong analytical and data-driven approach.

Siri has studied HD in Accounting and Financial Management and Cand.merc.aud at Copenhagen Business School and is an active member of the Danish Finance Society.

Collaboration is central to Siri's role, and she collaborates closely with colleagues across the firm to create value and support Plesner's overall objectives - ultimately benefiting/for the benefit of both the firm and its clients.
