Christian is a director in Plesner's Corporate Law team. He has, over the years, gained extensive experience by assisting large commercial companies and enterprises in matters related to corporate law.

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate Law

Christian primarily advises Danish and international clients on corporate matters that relate to company law, foundation law, and commercial law. He has experience providing legal assistance within a wide range of areas relating to corporate law, spanning from e.g., national and cross-border private and public M&A transactions and investments, mergers and divisions, company management, and incentive programs, to general corporate governance and formation and dissolution of companies.

Christian has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Aarhus.

On top of this, Christian has experience concerning all aspects of insolvency and restructuring law, including the administration of estates in bankruptcy, restructuring, litigation, management liability and business transfers in relation to insolvent companies.

Corporate law matters often require a dedicated team that excels in delivering a solution-focused approach to any given issue. Plesner's Corporate team is often complimented for the team's unwavering ability to collaborate, communicate clearly and the team's commercial focus, which ensures the best possible product for the client. The team advises in all aspects of corporate law and related practice areas.
