Maja is a manager in Plesner's Corporate Law team.

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate Law

She has, over the years, gained extensive experience by assisting large commercial enterprises in connection with transactions, corporate restructurings of both domestic and cross-border nature and other matters related to corporate law and corporate governance.

Maja primarily advises Danish and international clients on corporate matters that relate to company law and commercial law. She has experience providing legal assistance within a wide range of areas relating to corporate law, spanning from e.g., M&A transactions, domestic and cross-border mergers, investments and capitalization, warrants and compliance and corporate governance in general.

Maja has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Aarhus and studied two semesters at the University of Copenhagen. In addition, Maja has taken supplementary courses on Copenhagen Business School in relation to investments, finance and accounting.

On top of this, Maja has been engaged as an external lecturer at the University of Copenhagen teaching in company law and accounting law.

Corporate law matters often require a dedicated team that excels in delivering a solution-focused approach to any given issue. Plesner's Corporate Law team is often complimented for the team's unwavering ability to collaborate, communicate clearly and the team's commercial focus, which ensures the best possible product for the client. The team advises in all aspects of corporate law and related practice areas.
