Emil is a partner in our Banking and Finance team. Emil focuses primarily on financial regulation and offers advice in that regard, particularly to banks, asset managers, pension funds, and investment funds. His experiences cover particularly complex transactions and contract structures, which often involve cross-border aspects.

PRACTICE AREAS

Banking and Finance
Corporate Criminal Law
Financial Services
Investigations

Emil has worked on several financial undertaking investigations and has extensive experience in assisting with the handling of various enforcement cases, as well as matters concerning breaches of Danish financial regulation, liability, and managerial responsibility.

Further, Emil assists clients on an ongoing basis with material projects such as the establishment of financial undertakings or investment funds (AIFs and UCITS), purchases or sales of financial undertakings, larger reorganisations or restructurings, and implementation projects in respect of new financial regulation.

Emil also has extensive experience advising on and negotiating contracts for dealing derivatives and commodities (natural gas, electricity, and oil).

He has a Master's degree in Law from the University of Copenhagen.

Emil is involved in many large projects where a collaborative team effort and good project management are fundamental to achieving a successful result.

Clients turn to Emil and his team because of their regulatory expertise, commercial understanding, and focus on providing the best possible solutions that take into account the relevant commercial and practical aspects.
