

Insurance and Pension Law

Practice area

In the sphere of Insurance and Pension Law, our team stands out with unparalleled industry knowledge and a comprehensive suite of competencies. We have represented major Danish and international insurance, reinsurance and pension companies in a series of landmark cases, providing expert advice on all regulatory aspects, including transactions and restructurings of large Danish and international insurance and pension firms.

Our team excels in both general and regulatory insurance and pension law, as well as reinsurance. We offer advisory services for court cases and dispute resolution, the drafting and negotiation of insurance distribution agreements, insurance contracts and pension agreements, and the creation and amendment of insurance conditions. Additionally, we handle the undertaking of portfolio transfers in connection with restructurings and mergers.

Our in-depth understanding of the insurance and pension sector, coupled with our involvement in significant cases, enhances our capability to offer top-tier advice. This expertise is further strengthened by our active participation in trade associations such as the Danish Association of Insurance Law, AIDA Europe, and the International Insurance Law Association (AIDA).

Our extensive experience in the industry provides us with unique insights, allowing us to collaborate effectively with our clients to devise solutions that deliver maximum value.
